

Guidelines for sending account statement

Here you will find guidelines for downloading an account statement from the Internet banks of Swedbank, SEB Bank, LHV Bank, Coop Bank and Luminor.

If you present an account statement of Swedbank, SEB, LHV, Coop and Luminor it must be in a digitally signed format (.bdoc, .asice, .sce). If you present an account statement from any other bank, you first need to download it as a PDF file and then sign it digitally yourself using DigiDoc program.

Swedbank

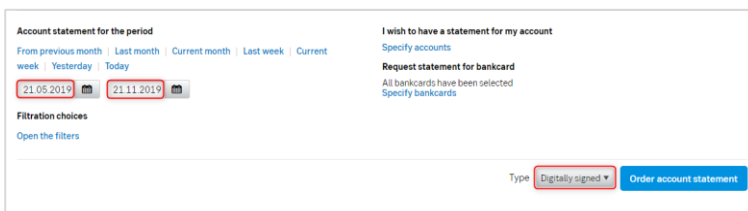

1. Enter the Internet bank of Swedbank at www.swedbank.ee.
2. Choose “Everyday banking” from the menu and then “Account statement”.
3. Choose the account statement period on the page that is displayed to you: as the date of beginning, the day that is six months earlier than today and, as the end, the day of yesterday.
4. Click on the “Submit request” button.
5. After sending the request save the account statement in .asice-format by clicking on the right “Download” and “eSeal” and from the view opening “Save on computer”.
6. The saved account statement can be uploaded from your computer straight to the loan application form. If you would like to do it later, log in to Inbank’s internet bank, choose from the menu Loans, find and open the waiting for income proof loan application and you can upload it there. If you cannot upload the statement in the internet bank of Inbank, please e-mail it to laen@inbank.ee.

The screenshot shows the Swedbank internet banking interface. On the left is a navigation menu with 'Account statement' highlighted. The main area is titled 'Account statement' and shows a form for selecting an account and a period (08.01.2021 - 08.07.2021). There are options for 'From/to and details', 'account number', and 'amount'. A 'Submit request' button is visible. Below the form, there are download options: CSV, eSeal, PDF, and XLS. A dialog box titled 'Send or save signed document' is open, showing options to 'Save to computer' or 'Send with e-mail'. The 'Send with e-mail' option is selected, and the recipient's email address is 'laen@inbank.ee' and the sender's is 'my@email.ee'.

SEB

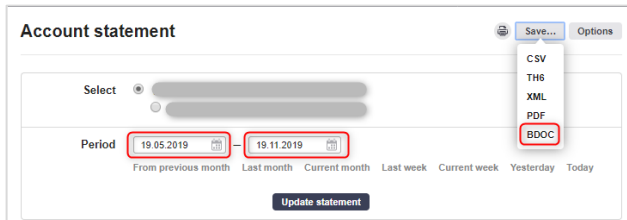

1. Enter the Internet bank of SEB at www.seb.ee.
2. Choose “Transactions” from the menu and then “Queries” and “Statement”.
3. Choose the account statement period on the page that is displayed to you: as the date of beginning, the day that is six months earlier than today and, as the end, the day of yesterday.
4. Choose, as the type of the statement, “Digitally signed”.
5. Click on the “Order account statement” button and save the file in your computer.
6. The saved account statement can be uploaded from your computer straight to the loan application form. If you would like to do it later, log in to Inbank’s internet bank, choose from the menu Loans, find and open the waiting for income proof loan application and you can upload it there.
